

K-LOVE is the primary station I listen to. It is uplifting, and puts a positive outlook on things. Their selection of music is the best clean understandable music currently on the radio. Their focus on doing good things in the community and the world is much needed in our current times. Please don't take away my K-LOVE.